INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

Reference report SA Richard T. Hradsky, dated 6-4-52, at New York. Your attention is directed to page 7 thereof wherein it is stated that Weinstein owns a chrome plated automatic pistol which he keeps in the bureau drawer in his apartment and that he has a large number of electronic parts in his apartment which he has stolen from his employer, the David Bogen Co. It is noted that this information has been obtained from [REDACTED] b7D who is being considered by your office for development as a confidential informant.

In view of the possible involvement of Weinstein in violations of local criminal statutes as reflected by the above information you are requested to submit your recommendations to the Bureau as to the advisability of furnishing such information to the New York City Police Department, without, of course, disclosing the source of this information. In that connection, you should express your views as to whether the disclosure of this information to local authorities will hinder instant investigation and compromise the future use of [REDACTED] as an informant. b7D

To advise that the attached report of SA Richard T. Hradsky, dated 6-4-52 in the above captioned case reflects information indicating that subject may be involved in violations of local criminal statutes.

To recommend that the New York Office be requested to submit its observations as to the advisability of reporting this information to the New York City Police Department.

DETAILS:

The Bureau's interest in Weinstein, born 7-17-26, New York City, is predicated upon information received from Jerome Eugene Tartakow, an informant who was incarcerated in the Federal House of Detention, New York City, with Julius Rosenberg. According to this informant, Rosenberg allegedly advised that an individual, who has been identified as Max Finestone was the last member recruited into his espionage network, and on one occasion, drove Rosenberg to Ithaca, New York, in order to pick up espionage material from Alfred Sarant, another member of this network. Further, this individual used a 1949 or 1950 Buick convertible belonging to an individual who has been identified as Weinstein on this trip. It was also indicated to the informant by Rosenberg that Finestone was the espionage contact who sent Vivian Glassman to Cleveland, Ohio in order to give William Perl, another member of this group, $2,000 to flee the country.

Investigation conducted to date in instant case has failed to develop any information indicating Weinstein was engaged in espionage activities; however, it was determined that Weinstein had been connected with such organizations as the New York State Youth Progressives of America, the Cornell University Organization of American Youth for Democracy and the Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee. In addition it was learned through Attorney O. John Rogge who is a friend of the Weinstein family, that subject's father, Joseph Weinstein, a very wealthy man, has been worried about his son's associates whom he considers as radicals. During 1950, Weinstein was contacted by agents and refused to be interviewed. In 1951, he was called before a Federal Grand Jury in New York and reportedly refused to answer any pertinent questions concerning his associations with Finestone and others. It is noted that Attorney Rogge has made an unsuccessful effort to persuade Weinstein to cooperate with the Bureau.

The report of SA Hradsky reflects that on page 7 there is set forth information obtained from [REDACTED] a potential security informant who is considered by the New York Office to be reliable. [REDACTED] has advised that Weinstein owns a chrome plated automatic pistol which he keeps in the bureau drawer of his apartment and further that Weinstein has a large number of electronic parts which he has stolen from his employer, the David Bogen Co., 13th Street and 9th Avenue, New York City. It should be noted that this company is not on the Vital Facilities List. b7D

OBSERVATION:

Assuming that the information from [REDACTED] is true and assuming that Weinstein does not have a permit to own a gun as required under a local statute in New York, known as the "Sullivan Act," Weinstein would be violating the law by having a pistol. Further, the allegation that Weinstein is in possession of stolen equipment is also obviously a local violation. b7D

It is felt that the New York City Police Department should be advised of the above information without, of course, being told the source of such information, unless the New York Office has reason to believe that such disclosure will hinder instant investigations and compromise their informant. In view of subject's uncooperative attitude toward the agents and his reported refusal to answer any pertinent questions before a Federal Grand Jury, the likelihood of his cooperation in the future is extremely remote.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that the attached letter to the New York Office requesting its observations concerning the above be approved and transmitted.

DETAILS:

A EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, more commonly known as JAMES WEINSTEIN, was a friend and roommate of MAXWELL FINESTONE, who was alleged to be the last individual recruited by JULIUS ROSENBERG, a Soviet agent, in his espionage network.

Information indicates that WEINSTEIN loaned his 1949 Buick convertible automobile to FINESTONE to drive JULIUS ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, where he picked up espionage material from one ALFRED SARANT.

DAVID GREENGLASS and his wife, RUTH GREENGLASS, have advised that they were recruited into the Soviet espionage apparatus by JULIUS ROSENBERG, a brother-in-law of DAVID GREENGLASS. DAVID GREENGLASS is now serving a fifteen year sentence for transmitting certain classified data relating to the atomic bomb project at Los Alamos, New Mexico, to HARRY GOLD, a confessed Soviet spy now serving a thirty year sentence for espionage. JULIUS ROSENBERG and his wife, ETHEL, were sentenced to death in April 1951 in the Southern District of New York for conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States.

DAVID and RUTH GREENGLASS learned through conversation with JULIUS ROSENBERG during the period 1946 to 1950 that he was extensively engaged in Soviet espionage, in connection with which he was using as a conspiratorial headquarters and for the purpose of microfilming documents and making espionage contacts, an apartment in the Greenwich Village Section of New York City, and an apartment in the vicinity of Twelfth Street and Avenue B.

Information obtained from MAX ELITCHER, who admits that ROSENBERG attempted to recruit him for Soviet espionage, indicates that the Greenwich Village apartment was located at 65 Morton Street, New York City. This apartment was rented in the name of ALFRED SARANT from October 1943 to January 1950.

Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised on March 23, 1951 that JULIUS ROSENBERG "mentioned an apartment rented by a student ostensibly used for studying on Morton Street, where he, JOEL BARR and 'BILL' used to meet in secret to discuss their plans." ROSENBERG did not identify "BILL" at this time but from other conversations the informant had with ROSENBERG, "BILL" is believed by T-1 to be WILLIAM

PERL.

NY 65-15773

On July 10, 1951 T-1 stated that ROSENBERG informed him that this apartment was ostensibly rented for a student to have a place to study, but that the real purpose was to have a place for meetings. ROSENBERG said that he had typed for many hours on various occasions in the Morton Street apartment and that to reduce the typing sounds he placed rubber pads under the typewriter table legs and would let the water run in the bathroom. ROSENBERG advised T-1 that he paid the rent on this apartment.

ALFRED SARANT, upon interview, has advised that he was a member of the Greenwich Village Branch of the Communist Party in 1943-1944, and believes that he met JULIUS ROSENBERG through a mutual friend named JOEL BARR. SARANT has denied that ROSENBERG was ever in his apartment at 65 Morton Street, but MAX ELITCHER has advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG, JOEL BARR, WILLIAM PERL (also known to him as WILLIAM MUTTERPERL), and ELITCHER and his wife, HELENE, were together in SARANT'S apartment, number 6-I, at 65 Morton Street, New York City in 1943-1944.

In 1945 ALFRED SARANT married LOUISE JACQUELINE RUBEL-ROSS and moved to Ithaca, New York, in about September 1946 at which time the apartment at 65 Morton Street, New York City, was taken by his friend, JOEL BARR. It was arranged that BARR would send him the rent for the apartment in Ithaca, New York, and that SARANT would then pay the landlord of 65 Morton Street by check.

SARANT has advised that WILLIAM PERL, who was a friend of both SARANT and JOEL BARR, used the apartment subsequent to JOEL BARR under the same rental paying arrangement and that PERL, in sending the last money order payment in January 1950, attached a note requesting SARANT to relinquish the apartment as PERL no longer had any use for it.

ALFRED SARANT, following his interview by Bureau agents in July-August 1950, fled the United States into Mexico, entering under an assumed name. His present whereabouts is unknown.

JOEL BARR was identified as a Soviet Agent by ROSENBERG to DAVID GREENGLASS following JOEL BARR'S sailing from the United States for Europe in January 1948. ROSENBERG advised DAVID GREENGLASS that BARR was going to Europe to continue his espionage work in European countries.

ALFRED SARANT has advised that JOEL BARR had a girl friend named VIVIAN GLASSMAN and that he believes that VIVIAN GLASSMAN sent him the first few rental payments in the form of money orders for the apartment rent at 65 Morton Street, New York City.

The Albany Office advised on July 22, 1950 that a money order, number 988487, issued at the Church Street Station Post Office, New York City on August 8, 1949, payable to ALFRED SARANT from VIVIAN GLASSMAN, 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, as remitter, was located in the account of ALFRED SARANT in the First National Bank of Ithaca, New York. The money order was in the amount of $45.00 and bore a deposit date of August 11, 1949.

VIVIAN GLASSMAN has advised upon interview that she was the former fiancée of JOEL BARR and that she had sent money orders to ALFRED SARANT in payment of the rent on 65 Morton Street in July and August 1948. She also admitted that she had made an airplane trip to Cleveland, Ohio, on July 22, 1950, to contact WILLIAM PERL with $2,000. in cash to give instructions to leave the United States and go to Mexico.

She stated that she received the $2,000. and the instructions for PERL from an unknown man who contacted her at her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, on the evening of July 21, 1950. GLASSMAN claimed that the identity of the man who contacted her was unknown to her, but refused to assist agents to identify him.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that in conversation JULIUS ROSENBERG stated that on a holiday weekend, which the informant believes may have been the Fourth of July weekend, 1949, WILLIAM PERL removed some secret files from a laboratory located at Columbia University. PERL took these files to ROSENBERG'S apartment at Knickerbocker Village, New York City, where ROSENBERG, PERL, a third unidentified individual who was called in from out of town, and a fourth man, together spent fourteen to seventeen hours with two cameras photographing the material that PERL had obtained, in order that PERL could return the material at his earliest convenience to Columbia University. ROSENBERG indicated to T-1 that the third man was MICHAEL SIDOROVICH, whom he described as a member of his espionage organization.

Confidential Informant T-1 stated that the fourth man was a definite member of the ROSENBERG espionage apparatus; that he is the man who subsequently contacted VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950, to arrange with her to proceed to Cleveland, Ohio, to contact WILLIAM PERL and give him $2,000. in order to facilitate his flight from the United States to Mexico.

The informant advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG indicated that the Russians sent his last recruit to contact VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950, and that the last individual that JULIUS ROSENBERG recruited into his Soviet espionage ring was a man who lived with the son of a wealthy family. The informant stated that the son of the wealthy family owned a black convertible Buick automobile with a white top, either a 1949 or 1950 model, and that he loaned his Buick to the last JULIUS ROSENBERG recruit who drove ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, to see ALFRED SARANT and make a pickup of espionage material. The date of the Ithaca trip would appear to have been either the weekend of June 3-4 or June 10-11, 1950 according to information furnished by DAVID GREENGLASS.

Concerning the identity of the two individuals described above by T-1, investigation to identify the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG who lived with the son of a wealthy family and who owned a 1949 or 1950 black Buick convertible automobile with a white top, indicates that one MAXWELL FINESTONE, with alias, MAX FINESTONE, was the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG and that EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, commonly known as JAMES WEINSTEIN, was the individual with whom he lived.

JAMES WEINSTEIN is the son of JOSEPH WEINSTEIN, President of the Versailles Garment Corporation, 470 Seventh Avenue, New York City, a ladies' garment manufacturing firm. JAMES WEINSTEIN, in an interview with Bureau agents on August 21, 1950, produced a New York State automobile registration dated January 19, 1950 for a 1949 Buick convertible.

NY 65-15773

JAMES WEINSTEIN resided at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, with MAX FINESTONE from February 1950 to about October-November 1950.

MAX FINESTONE, who was born on July 26, 1922, at Boston, Massachusetts, is a graduate of Cornell University, having graduated in September 1949, and is a close friend of LOUISE (PUSS) CARANT.

On April 5, 1951, VIVIAN GLASSMAN was observed leaving her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, with a man who was subsequently identified as MAX FINESTONE.

JAMES WEINSTEIN appeared before the Federal Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, in June 1951, and a possible violation of the perjury statute by JAMES WEINSTEIN is being investigated as Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, has advised [REDACTED]

INFORMATION REGARDING CHANGE OF TOP OF SUBJECT'S BUICK CONVERTIBLE

On October 15, 1951 at the Broadwest Motor Car Company, 2 West 61st Street, New York City, Mr. HOWARD E. GUEDALIA advised that he had purchased from JAMES WEINSTEIN, 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, a 1949 Buick convertible, Model 56-C, during the morning of July 19, 1950 for the price of $1,800. for which he gave his check number 2568. Mr. GUEDALIA described the seller of this automobile and his description coincided with the description of the subject.

An examination of check number 2568 revealed that JAMES WEINSTEIN had deposited this check at the Industrial Bank of Commerce, New York City on July 19, 1950. It was noted that the date of the sale of the car and the date of the deposit was two days after the arrest of JULIUS ROSENBERG for conspiracy to commit espionage. JULIUS ROSENBERG was arrested on the night of July 17, 1950 and information concerning this arrest first appeared in the newspapers on the morning of July 18, 1950.

Mr. GUEDALIA stated that the Buick automobile that he bought from JAMES WEINSTEIN was of a dark grey color and that it had two white-wall tires on it. He stated that on October 19, 1950 he sold this car to one Dr. LEONARD J. FOX, 225 West 106th Street, New York City, a dentist, who had offices at 134 West 86th Street, New York City.

On December 14, 1951 Mr. ROBERT FOX, father of Dr. LEONARD J. FOX, telephonically advised that he had ascertained from his son, who was serving in Korea, that just prior to his son's departure from the United States he had sold his 1949 dark grey Buick convertible to a Rabbi who lived on Riverside Drive between 110th Street and 115th Street, New York City. This automobile was located on December 14, 1951 at the Herbst Garage, 227 East 162nd Street, New York City through information obtained from Rabbi ARTHUR J. LELYVELD, 410 Riverside Drive, New York City.

On May 8, 1952 Mr. ROBERT FOX advised that he recalled that his son had replaced the white or light grey canvas top that was on the Buick convertible at the time that his son had purchased the car from a used car dealer because the car had on one occasion been parked on the street outside their home and the top had been slashed and torn by vandals during the night. He stated that the damage was so extensive that the top could not be repaired and had to be replaced with a new top.

Mr. ROBERT FOX stated that he did not know at which garage his son had this work done and that he was unable to correspond with his son as he had received a letter informing him that he was leaving Korea and was returning to the United States. Mr. FOX advised that upon his son's return to New York City he would request him to contact the reporting agent and advise concerning the identity of the dealer that replaced the top on the Buick convertible.

On August 8, 1952 Mr. ROBERT FOX telephonically advised that his son Captain LEONARD J. FOX, DDS had returned to the United States from military service in the Pacific area but had been reassigned to Camp Polk, Louisiana and could be reached there at the dental clinic.

INFORMATION AT DAVID BOGEN INCORPORATED

On August 5, 1952 Miss A. DEL VESCOVO, Personnel Department, David Bogen Company Incorporated, 29 Ninth Avenue, New York City, advised that JAMES WEINSTEIN 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, Social Security Number 086-22-0539 had been discharged on June 17, 1952 by his supervisor IRVING BRANDER for inattention to his work; that WEINSTEIN had received repeated warnings not to talk so much while on the job and to pay attention to his production. Miss DEL VESCOVO stated that WEINSTEIN was receiving $65.40 per week at the time of his discharge..

Mr. IRVING BRANDER, Supervisor, David Bogen Company Incorporated advised that he had recommended the discharge of JAMES WEINSTEIN in view of WEINSTEIN'S disregard of several admonitions to tend to his work. He stated that he had not met WEINSTEIN until subject started work at the David Bogen Company, which was formerly located at 665 Broadway, New York City, sometime in 1951, and that at the outset of WEINSTEIN'S assignment to the testing line he was a satisfactory employee.

He stated that when the David Bogen Company moved from its Broadway location in March 1952 to its present location, WEINSTEIN was elected a steward of the union representing the plant's employees. This was in about April 1952. The union representing the David Bogen Company employees is the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL. Mr. BRANDER stated that he then noted that WEINSTEIN was devoting increasing amounts of company time to personal and union activities and was ignoring instructions to adhere to his job and to transact his other business outside of working hours. He stated that WEINSTEIN had been made a "straw-boss" at the Ninth Avenue plant and used his position to further the union's and his own interest at the expense of the firm.

Mr. BRANDER stated that he was told by another employee named JOHN BROWN, a negro, that WEINSTEIN was a Communist and that he was expending his efforts solidifying a small group of individuals whom BRANDER described as a "wrong crowd". He explained that he meant troublemakers.

Mr. BRANDER stated that before WEINSTEIN'S employment there was no discontent or expression of dissatisfaction as to working conditions or wages but that since WEINSTEIN entered,

NY 65-15773

It was noted that the floor on which WEINSTEIN was working was always in a state of agitation and there was a continuing stream of grievances being brought to management's attention. BRANDER stated that he had no personal knowledge that WEINSTEIN was a Communist; that he had never seen him distribute any Communist literature; that he had never heard him make any political expressions and that JOHN BROWN was the only employee who told him that WEINSTEIN was a Communist.

He stated that he believed BROWN had told him that he had been invited to WEINSTEIN'S apartment on one occasion and had there determined that WEINSTEIN was a Communist.

Mr. JOHN BROWN, 41-01 Vernon Boulevard, Long Island City, New York advised on August 5, 1952 that he was shop chairman of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers Union at the David Bogen Company Incorporated, 29 Ninth Avenue, New York City and had worked with JAMES WEINSTEIN, who was a shop steward.

BROWN stated that WEINSTEIN was a close friend of GLORIA SPERO, 30-21 87th Street, Jackson Heights, Long Island, RALPH SHAPIRO, 740 West End Avenue, New York City, AIDE VANDERPOOL, 467 A McDonough Street, Brooklyn, New York and ALFRED WALSE, 72 Morningside Avenue, New York City, all employees of David Bogen Company. He stated that WEINSTEIN was made shop steward in March or April 1952 and that he immediately started more agitation for changes at the David Bogen Company than BROWN had heard of in his seven years there and had neglected his work in doing so, which resulted in his being fired.

BROWN advised that WEINSTEIN had indicated that he was a Communist on an occasion which developed after a union meeting. He stated that WEINSTEIN was inviting some of the union members to his apartment for a drink and BROWN was present in the group. WEINSTEIN did not ask BROWN to come, stating that BROWN probably had to go home as his wife would be waiting for him. BROWN answered that as long as he had stayed at the union meeting as long as he had, he probably would have a little time to stop by for a drink. WEINSTEIN, BROWN and some other individual, whose identity BROWN did not recall, then went to WEINSTEIN'S apartment on East Ninth Street.

BROWN related that upon arrival there he walked over to WEINSTEIN'S bookcase to examine his library and there saw books written by KARL MARX. BROWN said that he concluded that WEINSTEIN was therefore a Communist.

NY 65-15773

Later in the evening, according to BROWN, they started to talk politics, the subject being the Korean War, and when BROWN remarked that the Korean Reds were prolonging the war, WEINSTEIN vehemently defended the Reds and blamed the starting of the Korean War on the United States.

BROWN stated that on another occasion during a conversation with WEINSTEIN, subject had stated that PAUL ROBESON, the Communist singer, was to sing at Beethoven Hall in New York City on the same night that a union meeting was scheduled; that WEINSTEIN stated that he knew PAUL ROBESON; that he was going to the ROBESON meeting instead of the union meeting and that WEINSTEIN did not appear at the union meeting that night.

BROWN stated that WEINSTEIN had not distributed any Communist Party literature at David Eogen Company but had given BROWN a paper the title of which BROWN recalled as "New Challenge". BROWN said he recalled that the paper had some connection with the Labor Youth League.

He did not recall that WEINSTEIN had ever asked him to accompany him to any Communist Party meetings nor had he ever asked him to join any organizations.

Concerning the Labor Youth League the following appears in a booklet entitled Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, dated March 3, 1951 prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, US House of Representatives, 82nd Congress:

"Labor Youth League

"1. CHECK TO VERIFY ALLEGED EMPLOYMENT AT ESPEY
MANUFACTURING COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY

Subject filed an application for employment dated June 12, 1951 at the Anton Electronic Laboratories, 1226 Flushing Avenue, Brooklyn, New York on which he reflected his previous employment as the Espey Manufacturing Company, 72nd Street and York Avenue, New York City where he claimed he had been employed as a wirer of radio sets from September 1948 to June 1949. He also filed a Personnel Security Questionnaire on which he gave as a reference one LOUISE SPITZER, 41 West 83rd Street, New York City, whom he claimed to have known for twelve years.

On August 11, 1952 Miss PHYLIS DEBUS, Personnel Secretary, Espey Manufacturing Company, 528 East 72nd Street, New York City, advised that a check of employment records of this firm failed to reveal an employment application for a JAMES or EDWARD WEINSTEIN. Miss DEBUS stated that the employment records date from 1945 and that if WEINSTEIN had been employed for three days or longer, an employment record would be on file, but that if he had worked less than that time, it is possible that no application blank had been filled out by subject.

It is recalled that information received from records of Cornell University, Ithaca, New York by the Albany Office on October 6, 1950 reflected that WEINSTEIN reentered Cornell University after military service in the United States Navy for the fall term of 1946 and graduated with an AB degree on June 13, 1949. It would appear that WEINSTEIN was therefore at Cornell University between September 1948 and June 1949 and not at the Espey Manufacturing Company.

The indices of the New York Office were negative on the name LOUISE SPITZER, 41 West 83rd Street, New York City, given by subject as an employment reference. However, the voting records for Manhattan for the year 1949 reflect that LOUISE SPITZER registered from 41 West 83rd Street, New York City and gave her age as 21 years, born in the United States, single and residing in Apartment 9-B. She registered as an affiliate of the American Labor Party.

NY 65-15773

Concerning the American Labor Party, the following appears in a booklet entitled Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications dated March 3, 1951 prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, US House of Representatives, 82nd Congress:

"American Labor Party

"1. 'For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.' (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, March 29, 1944, p. 78)

"2. Among 'organizations that are victims of Communist domination.' (California Committee on Un-American Activities, Report, 1948, pp. 40 and 41.)"

Also registered from 41 West 83rd Street, New York City were ESTHER and BENJAMIN SPITZER. Both registered for the American Labor Party. BENJAMIN SPITZER indicated that his age was 62, married, born in Hungary and a naturalized citizen. ESTHER SPITZER indicated her age as 40 years plus, married and born in the United States.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised that in August 1943 a check of the records of the Consolidated Edison Company, New York City reflected that an account was opened in the name of one Mrs. RALPH BOWMAN, care of ESTHER SPITZER, Durrin Avenue, Peekskill, New York on August 1, 1930 and that it was closed out on March 28, 1942. The bill for this service was charged to ESTHER SPITZER at this address. The records reflect that a final bill for Mrs. BOWMAN had been sent to 41 West 83rd Street, New York City.

The account of Mrs. ESTHER SPITZER for service at 41 West 83rd Street, New York City was opened on September 29, 1936. The records reflect that on December 5, 1939 one RALPH BOWMAN, giving an address of 117 West 69th Street, Apartment 4, New York City, opened an account at Consolidated Edison Company for service at 41 West 83rd Street, New York City at which time the name of PHILIP JAFFEE, 49 East Ninth Street, New York City was given as a reference. This account was active until January 5, 1940.

On April 19, 1943 STEVE NELSON dictated a letter to "AL" reflecting the conversation between ZUBILIN and NELSON and advising that ZUBILIN, who was given the cover name of COOPER, was coming to New York City and for "AL" to see him there. The letter was placed in an envelop which in turn was placed in another envelop addressed to a mail drop at 519 West 139th Street, New York City, in care of DORIS SILVER.

"AL" was subsequently identified as RALPH BOWMAN. DORIS SILVER was identified as DOROTHY EERTHA SILBER born October 9, 1916 at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Informant stated that VASSILI M. ZUBILIN was by his own statement, an agent of the Communist international. Informant stated that STEVE NELSON had performed espionage work for the Soviet Government in 1931 and 1932. PHILIP JAFFEE, mentioned above, was formerly Managing Editor of a publication entitled "Amerasia".

CONTACT OF ASSISTANT UNITED STATES ATTORNEY,
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

During an interview of Miss MELISANDE "NONNY" CONGDON who resides at the Evangeline Residence, 123 West 13th Street, New York City in September 1951, information was received that one JUDY MOGIL had attended a housewarming party at the residence of EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City in the early months of 1950. Miss CONGDON stated that she had known JUDY MOGIL at Smith College. WEINSTEIN at that time had residing with him MAXWELL FINESTONE and GARETH "GARY" PICKARD.

GARY PICKARD, 711 Seventh Street, Las Vegas, Nevada advised that he had attended the housewarming party and that he saw WILLIAM PERL and ELEANOR GLASSMAN, VIVIAN GLASSMAN'S sister there. GARY PICKARD presently resides in Mexico City.

On February 29, 1952 JUDY MOGIL, who resides at 205 West Tenth Street, New York City, was contacted at the National Information Research Center, 98 Fifth Avenue, New York City and a request was made for an appointment for an interview. DETAILS

AT NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA

By letter of June 30, 1952 advice was received from the New York Division that investigation at New York City reflected that the address of 15 West 18th Street was the residence of SAMUEL and LILY SONTAG, parents-in-law of the subject.

PATRICK CRONIN, elevator operator at 15 West 18th Street, advised that LOIS SONTAG visited the SONTAG apartment on several occasions subsequent to her marriage to RICHARD MAX SONTAG, but had never actually resided at the address. CRONIN stated that he last saw LOIS SONTAG and RICHARD SONTAG several months prior to June, 1952, when RICHARD SONTAG was on leave from the Army, but that LOIS SONTAG had departed with RICHARD SONTAG and was residing with him in New Mexico.

By letter of August 8, 1952 advice was received from the Albuquerque Division that RICHARD SONTAG and LOIS SONTAG resided at 3431 E. Anderson, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

SECURITY MATTER - C

The Bureau is being furnished five copies of the report of SA H. KATZ TOOL, JR., dated August 26, 1952 at New Orleans, entitled "LOIS SONTAG, nee Weinstein, SM - C". This report indicates that established and reliable New Orleans informants in Communist Party activities are not cognizant of the subject or her husband, RICHARD MAX SONTAG. Moreover, investigation in the New Orleans Division has failed to reflect subversive or Communist Party activities on the part of either RICHARD or LOIS SONTAG. In view of the recommendations of the Albuquerque and New York Divisions that consideration be given to the interview of LOIS SONTAG regarding the activities of her brother, EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, the New Orleans Office sees no reason why the interview should not be conducted. ReBulet 7-2-52 pointing out that subject may have committed violations of local criminal statutes as reflected by information appearing in the New York report of Special Agent Richard T. Hradsky dated 6-4-52 and requesting that your office submit recommendations to the Bureau as to the advisability of furnishing such information to the New York City Police Department. Expedite your recommendations.

NOTE: Subject believed to be member of Rosenberg espionage group. Investigation negative to date. Has been uncooperative to agents and refused to answer questions before Federal Grand Jury. Special Agent Hradsky report reflected info from confidential source reflecting subject possessed automatic pistol and has stolen electronic parts from his employer. In view of subject's uncooperative attitude, it is felt NYCPD should be advised of above information unless NYO believes such disclosure will hinder instant investigation. RefBulet requested NYO to submit recommendations which have not been received to date. Above letter is follow-up.

INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950

A review of previous reports submitted by your office in this case reflects considerable information concerning the bank account of subject maintained at the Industrial Bank of Commerce, New York City. It is noted that since the opening of this account in 1947, subject has made substantial deposits and withdrawals running into four and five figures on several occasions. It is further noted that on numerous occasions subject has either overdrawn his account or left a very small balance. It is realized that Weinstein receives a substantial income from investments and business enterprises of his wealthy father. However, from investigation conducted to date, it does not appear that subject lives on a high scale but lives a rather frugal life. Inasmuch as subject has drawn substantial sums of money from his account from time to time, investigative efforts should be directed toward determining the disposition of this money. It is believed logical to assume that subject does not use this money for his ordinary living expenses. The possibility that this money is redeposited in another account maintained by the subject or invested by him in some business or other enterprise should be considered. Every effort should be made to determine if subject has other bank accounts and business investments. In that connection, an examination of his canceled checks should be made on a monthly basis, if possible, for the next six months so that a proper analysis can be made of the activity in this account.

You will recall that Julius Rosenberg was arrested on July 17, 1950. Two days later, Weinstein sold his 1949 Buick convertible to a used car dealer for $1,800 and deposited this sum to his account. On July 20, 1950, Weinstein withdrew $7,500 from his account. On July 21, 1950, Vivian Glassman received $2,000 in cash from an unidentified individual to deliver to William Perl in Cleveland, Ohio. It is also interesting to note that Morton Sobell left the United States on July 22, 1950, and Alfred Sarant disappeared shortly thereafter. The possibility exists that Sobell and Sarant were given substantial sums of money to assist them in their flight. Further, the possibility of Weinstein being the source of funds given to various members of the Rosenberg group should be considered in this investigation.

Rebuletts 7/2/52, 9/26/52 and report SA RICHARD T. BRADSKY dated 6/4/52.

Regarding the advisability of furnishing information concerning the reported possession by subject of a chrome-plated automatic pistol and electronic parts allegedly stolen by subject from his former employer, the David Bogen Co., Inc., the local authorities as possible violations of local criminal statutes. b7D

Inquiry of the informant in this matter [redacted] has disclosed that the pistol does not function as it has had its firing pin removed and is apparently a war souvenir and that there did not appear to be any name or marking of the David Bogen Co., on the electronic parts referred to by which they could unqualifiedly be identified as property of the David Bogen Co. It is also recalled that informant saw these articles while subject was residing at his former place of residence at 418 E. 9th St., NYC and that he does not know if subject has moved these articles to his new residence at 101 St. Marks Place, NYC. In view of the possibility that a report to the NYCPD might result in possible embarrassment to the Bureau in the event the articles could not be located at subjects new residence it would appear to be inadvisable to make such a report.

DETAILS:

INTERVIEW OF MRS. LOIS SONTAG NEE WEINSTEIN

On November 14, 1952, Mrs. LOIS SONTAG nee WEINSTEIN, subject's sister, was interviewed by SA J. PHILLIP CLARIDGE and the writer at 3431 East Anderson, Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Mrs. SONTAG stated that she first met MAXWELL FIRESTONE through her brother "JIMMIE" in either 1946 or 1947 at the WEINSTEIN residence, 211 Central Park, West, New York City. She stated that at that time MAXWELL FIRESTONE was a fellow student and friend of "JIMMIE" at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, and that "JIMMIE" had invited FIRESTONE to the WEINSTEIN home. She recalled that FIRESTONE had visited the WEINSTEIN residence on several occasions while "JIMMIE" and he were attending Cornell University.

Mrs. SONTAG informed that either late in 1949 or early in 1950 "JIMMIE" had moved from the WEINSTEIN residence to an apartment at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, sharing this apartment with MAXWELL FIRESTONE. She informed that "JIMMIE" told her that he had taken an apartment in order to become independent of the family and also so that he would have time to study law. She recalled that during this period subject attended Columbia Law School and was finding it difficult to study at home, inasmuch as the WEINSTEIN family had many visitors and engaged in other social activities.

Mrs. SONTAG informed that she was the dinner guest of her brother, "JIMMIE", at his apartment, 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, on three or four occasions between January and August of 1950. To the best of her recollection, FIRESTONE had dinner with them on each of these occasions.

She informed that she disliked FIRESTONE because of his "domineering" and "know-it-all" attitude. She also blamed FIRESTONE for inducing "JIMMIE" to move from the family residence and to take an apartment. Mrs. SONTAG recalled that on one occasion in the middle part of 1950 "JIMMIE" told her that MAXWELL FIRESTONE had borrowed his car on a couple of occasions and that he, "JIMMIE", did not like to loan his car to anyone outside the family. She described "JIMMIE's" car as a dark gray 1949 Buick Convertible. Mrs. SONTAG was unable to furnish any information as to the reason or reasons given by FIRESTONE for borrowing

"JIMMIE'S" car.

She informed that "JIMMIE" had sold his 1949 Buick Convertible because he felt it was too expensive to operate a large car in New York City and, further, because he wanted to raise money to buy a boat.

Mrs. SONTAG recalled that both MAXWELL FINESTONE and "JIMMIE" were interested in the Progressive Party in 1948. She advised that "JIMMIE" had made a substantial money contribution to the Progressive Party, but could furnish no information other than that concerning either subject's or FINESTONE'S political activities.

She informed that she had never met any people through FINESTONE and knew nothing concerning the identity of people that might have visited "JIMMIE'S" and FINESTONE'S apartment. She further advised that she was not personally acquainted with ETHEL or JULIUS ROSENBERG, and that she had never heard her brother mention these individuals. Mrs. SONTAG advised that, in her opinion, her brother, "JIMMIE", would not knowingly give any assistance to persons committing or conspiring to commit espionage. She further advised that "JIMMIE" and FINESTONE were no longer friends, but did not know the cause for this alleged rift.

INTERVIEW OF LIEUTENANT RICHARD MAX SONTAG

On November 14, 1952, Lieutenant RICHARD MAX SONTAG, subject's brother-in-law, was interviewed by SA J. PHILLIP CLARIDGE and the writer at the Sandia Base Security Office, Sandia Base, Albuquerque, New Mexico. Lieutenant SONTAG advised that he first met subject in April of 1950, and that he has seen him approximately five times since that date. He advised that he met subject at the WEINSTEIN residence, 211 Central Park West, New York City, but recalled that at that time subject was residing in an apartment, 418 East Ninth Street, New York City.

Lieutenant SONTAG recalled that subject owned a dark gray 1949 Buick Convertible and had sold this car in the summer of 1950. He was unable to furnish any information concerning the reason why WEINSTEIN sold this car.

Lieutenant SONTAG advised that he had never met MAXWELL FINESTONE and did not know of any of FINESTONE'S associates, other than his brother-in-law, "JIMMIE" WEINSTEIN.

Lieutenant SONTAG informed that, from his association with subject, it was his opinion that subject would not knowingly give assistance to persons committing or conspiring to commit espionage.

SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL

NY 65-15773

Details: ~~EDWARD~~ JAMES WEINSTEIN, more commonly known as JAMES WEINSTEIN, was a friend and roommate of MAXWELL ~~FINESTONE~~, who was alleged to be the last individual recruited by JULIUS ROSENBERG, a Soviet agent, in his espionage network.

Information indicates that WEINSTEIN loaned his 1949 Buick convertible automobile to ~~FINESTONE~~ to drive JULIUS ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, where he picked up espionage material from one ~~ALFRED SARANT~~.

DAVID ~~GREENGLASS~~ and his wife, RUTH ~~GREENGLASS~~, have advised that they were recruited into the Soviet espionage apparatus by JULIUS ROSENBERG, a brother-in-law of DAVID ~~GREENGLASS~~. DAVID ~~GREENGLASS~~ is now serving a fifteen year sentence for transmitting certain classified data relating to the atomic bomb project at Los Alamos, New Mexico, to HARRY GOLD, a confessed Soviet spy now serving a thirty year sentence for espionage. JULIUS ROSENBERG and his wife, ETHEL, were sentenced to death in April 1951 in the Southern District of New York for conspiracy to commit espionage against the United States.

DAVID and RUTH ~~GREENGLASS~~ learned through conversation with JULIUS ROSENBERG during the period 1946 to 1950 that he was extensively engaged in Soviet espionage, in connection with which he was using as a conspiratorial headquarters and for the purpose of microfilming documents and making espionage contacts, an apartment in the Greenwich Village Section of New York City, and an apartment in the vicinity of Twelfth Street and Avenue B.

Information obtained from MAX ~~ELITCHER~~, who admits that ROSENBERG attempted to recruit him for Soviet espionage, indicates that the Greenwich Village apartment was located at 65 Morton Street, New York City. This apartment was rented in the name of ALFRED SARANT from October 1943 to January 1950.

Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised on March 23, 1951 that JULIUS ROSENBERG "mentioned an apartment rented by a student ostensibly used for studying on Morton Street, where he, JOEL ~~BARK~~ and 'BILL' used to meet in secret to discuss their plans." ROSENBERG did not identify "BILL" at this time but from other conversations the informant had with ROSENBERG, "BILL" is believed by T-1 to be WILLIAM PERL.

NY 65-15773

On July 10, 1951 T-1 stated that ROSENBERG informed him that this apartment was ostensibly rented for a student to have a place to study, but that the real purpose was to have a place for meetings. ROSENBERG said that he had typed for many hours on various occasions in the Morton Street apartment and that to reduce the typing sounds he placed rubber pads under the typewriter table legs and would let the water run in the bathroom. ROSENBERG advised T-1 that he paid the rent on this apartment.

ALFRED SARANT, upon interview, has advised that he was a member of the Greenwich Village Branch of the Communist Party in 1943-1944, and believes that he met JULIUS ROSENBERG through a mutual friend named JOEL BARR. SARANT has denied that ROSENBERG was ever in his apartment at 65 Morton Street, but MAX ELITCHER has advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG, JOEL BARR, WILLIAM PERL (also known to him as WILLIAM MUTTERPERL), and ELITCHER and his wife, HELENE, were together in SARANT'S apartment, number 6-I, at 65 Morton Street, New York City, in 1943-1944.

In 1945 ALFRED SARANT married LOUISE JACQUELINE RUBELROSS and moved to Ithaca, New York, in about September 1946 at which time the apartment at 65 Morton Street, New York City, was taken by his friend, JOEL BARR. It was arranged that BARR would send him the rent for the apartment in Ithaca, New York, and that SARANT would then pay the landlord of 65 Morton Street, by check.

SARANT has advised that WILLIAM PERL, who was a friend of both SARANT and JOEL BARR, used the apartment subsequent to JOEL BARR under the same rental paying arrangement and that PERL, in sending the last money order payment in January 1950, attached a note requesting SARANT to relinquish the apartment as PERL no longer had any use for it.

ALFRED SARANT, following his interview by Bureau agents in July-August 1950, fled the United States into Mexico, entering under an assumed name. His present whereabouts is unknown.

WILLIAM PERL has been identified as a Soviet agent by ROSENBERG to Confidential Informant T-1. PERL is at present under indictment for perjury before the Federal Grand Jury in the Southern District of New York.

NY 65-15773

JOEL BARR was identified as a Soviet agent by ROSENBERG to DAVID GREENGLASS following JOEL BARR'S sailing from the United States for Europe in January 1948. ROSENBERG advised DAVID GREENGLASS that BARR was going to Europe to continue his espionage work in European countries.

ALFRED SARANT has advised that JOEL BARR had a girlfriend named VIVIAN GLASSMAN and that he believes that VIVIAN GLASSMAN sent him the first few rental payments in the form of money orders for the apartment rent at 65 Morton Street, New York City.

The Albany Office advised on July 22, 1950 that a money order, number 988487, issued at the Church Street Station Post Office, New York City on August 8, 1949, payable to ALFRED SARANT from VIVIAN GLASSMAN, 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, as remitter, was located in the account of ALFRED SARANT in the First National Bank of Ithaca, New York. The money order was in the amount of $45.00 and bore a deposit date of August 11, 1949.

VIVIAN GLASSMAN has advised upon interview that she was the former fiancée of JOEL BARR and that she had sent money orders to ALFRED SARANT in payment of the rent on 65 Morton Street in July and August 1948. She also admitted that she had made an airplane trip to Cleveland, Ohio, on July 22, 1950, to contact WILLIAM PERL with $2,000.00 in cash to give instructions to leave the United States and go to Mexico.

She stated that she received the $2,000.00 and the instructions for PERL from an unknown man who contacted her at her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, on the evening of July 21, 1950. GLASSMAN claimed that the identity of the man who contacted her was unknown to her, but refused to assist agents to identify him.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised that in conversation JULIUS ROSENBERG stated that on a holiday weekend, which the informant believes may have been the Fourth of July weekend, 1949, WILLIAM PERL removed some secret files from a laboratory located at Columbia University. PERL took these files to ROSENBERG'S apartment at Knickerbocker Village, New York City, where ROSENBERG, PERL, a third unidentified individual who was called in from out of town, and a fourth man, together spent fourteen to seventeen hours with two cameras photographing the material that PERL had obtained, in order that PERL could return the material at his earliest convenience to Columbia University. ROSENBERG indicated to T-1 that the third man was MICHAEL SIDOROVICH, whom he described as a member of his espionage organization.

Confidential Informant T-1 stated that the fourth man was a definite member of the ROSENBERG espionage apparatus; that he is the man who subsequently contacted VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950, to arrange with her to proceed to Cleveland, Ohio, to contact WILLIAM PERL and give him $2,000.00 in order to facilitate his flight from the United States to Mexico.

The informant advised that JULIUS ROSENBERG indicated that the Russians sent his last recruit to contact VIVIAN GLASSMAN on July 21, 1950, and that the last individual that JULIUS ROSENBERG recruited into his Soviet espionage ring was a man who lived with the son of a wealthy family. The informant stated that the son of the wealthy family owned a black convertible Buick automobile with a white top, either a 1949 or 1950 model, and that he loaned his Buick to the last JULIUS ROSENBERG recruit who drove ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York, to see ALFRED SARANT and make a pickup of espionage material. The date of the Ithaca trip would appear to have been either the weekend of June 3-4 or June 10-11, 1950, according to information furnished by DAVID GREENGLASS.

Concerning the identity of the two individuals described above by T-1, investigation to identify the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG who lived with the son of a wealthy family and who owned a 1949 or 1950 black Buick convertible automobile with a white top, indicates that one MAXWELL FINESTONE, with alias, MAX FINESTONE, was the last recruit of JULIUS ROSENBERG and that EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, commonly known as JAMES WEINSTEIN, was the individual with whom he lived.

NY 65-15773

JAMES WEINSTEIN is the son of JOSEPH WEINSTEIN, President of the Versailles Garment Corporation, 470 Seventh Avenue, New York City, a ladies' garment manufacturing firm. JAMES WEINSTEIN, in an interview with Bureau agents on August 21, 1950, produced a New York State automobile registration dated January 19, 1950 for a 1949 Buick convertible.

JAMES WEINSTEIN resided at 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, with MAX FINESTONE from February 1950 to about October-November 1950.

MAX FINESTONE, who was born on July 28, 1922, at Boston, Massachusetts, is a graduate of Cornell University, having been graduated in September 1949, and is a close friend of LOUISE (PUSS) SARANT.

On April 5, 1951, VIVIAN GLASSMAN was observed leaving her apartment at 131 East Seventh Street, New York City, with a man who was subsequently identified as MAX FINESTONE.

JAMES WEINSTEIN appeared before the Federal Grand Jury, Southern District of New York, in June 1951, and a possible violation of the perjury statute by JAMES WEINSTEIN is being investigated as Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, has advised that [REDACTED] b3

CHECK FOR EMPLOYMENT OF SUBJECT

On September 16, 1952, records of the Edwards Employment Agency, 73 Warren Street, New York City, reflected that JAMES WEINSTEIN had applied for a position in the electronics field on July 14, 1952 and had been referred for employment to the Sapan Engineering Company, 801 Greenwich Street, New York City. He gave his telephone number as CANal 8-0488, and his residence address as 101 St. Marks Place, New York City, Apartment B, on his application.

The Edwards Employment Agency telephonically followed up his referral to the Sapan Engineering Company in order to bill the subject for its commission in securing him the job, and was informed that JAMES WEINSTEIN had not appeared at the Sapan Engineering Company for interview. On September 25, 1952, at the Sapan Engineering Company, 801 Greenwich Street, New York City, MARY MacPHAIL, Receptionist, advised that the employment records of this company reflected no employment of a JAMES WEINSTEIN.

INTERVIEW OF MRS. C. MAGRATH

On September 26, 1952, Mrs. C. MAGRATH, 101 St. Marks Place, New York City, wife of the superintendent of this building wherein subject resides, advised that JAMES WEINSTEIN had moved into this location in about May of 1952, and that at that time he had a man living with him whose name was unknown to Mrs. MAGRATH. She stated that this individual had resided with WEINSTEIN a very short time and that she had not seen him there since about June. She stated that WEINSTEIN, however, has numerous visitors, both white and negro, and that she had noted that some must remain overnight as she has seen them emerging from his apartment at 10:30 in the morning and after. Mrs. MAGRATH advised that she did not know where WEINSTEIN was employed or if he was working but she had noticed him around the apartment during the summer and he had informed her that he was on vacation. She stated that this indicated to her that he was probably employed.

Mrs. MAGRATH advised that WEINSTEIN is paying $65.00 a month rent for his basement apartment, and that in addition he furnishes his own heat, and that his rent has been paid promptly since he moved into this location.

Mrs. MAGRATH stated that she had seen the subject emerging from a new Ford recently and that she had also noted he has been arriving home between approximately 5:30 and 6:00 p.m. daily.

On October 14, 1952, Mrs. MAGRATH advised that she had been at the registration polls during the first week of October 1952 and that she had heard WEINSTEIN state that he was employed at the Emerson Radio and Phonograph Company, 14 and Cole Street, Jersey City, New Jersey, when he was registering as a potential voter.

NY 65-15773

CHECK AT NEW YORK MOTOR VEHICLE BUREAU

A check was made at the New York Motor Vehicle Bureau for a 1952 automobile registration in the name of JAMES WEINSTEIN, with negative results; however, it was ascertained that an operator's license had been issued to JAMES WEINSTEIN, 101 St. Marks Place, New York City, for 1952-1955, number 6032531. His date of birth was reflected as July 17, 1926; height, six feet; weight, 151 pounds; eyes, brown; hair brown; wears glasses, and no business address was listed.

CHECK AT INDUSTRIAL BANK OF COMMERCE

On September 3, 1952 and October 30, 1952, Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised that there were no deposits or withdrawals reflected in subject's checking account at the Industrial Bank of Commerce of New York, 56 East 42 Street, New York City, in the months of September and October 1952.

[REDACTED] obtained this employment as a result of an interview with a company official at Cornell University immediately prior to his graduation in 1951. [REDACTED] have resided at the above address since July 1951, and [REDACTED] has been employed by the [REDACTED] since that time.

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] he enrolled in Cornell University in the spring of 1947 to study [REDACTED] Shortly after his enrollment he became engaged in extra-curricular activities, and as a part of this latter activity, he joined the American Youth for Democracy group on the campus. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D)

As a result of this activity, he became friendly with one LUCILLE OAKLANDER, a student and a member of the American Youth for Democracy also. In May 1947, OAKLANDER invited [REDACTED] to a [REDACTED] meeting at the home of MAX FINESTONE'S parents. The parents were identified as HUGH CHAVEN, stepfather, and ANNA FINESTONE CHAVEN, mother. (b)(7)(D)

At this [REDACTED] meeting, [REDACTED] joined the Communist Party. The following persons were present at the meeting, and were described as being Communist Party members: (b)(7)(D)

ROBERT ROGEL
DANIEL MARION
LUCILLE OAKLANDER
JACK MINKOFF
ANN JOHNSON
PAUL ROSENBLOOM

A couple with the last name of ROSENBERG.

[REDACTED] stated that this ROSENBERG couple was definitely not JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG, as this couple was in their early twenties, and the wife was pregnant at that time. (b)(7)(D)

MAX FINESTONE
ANNA FINESTONE CHAVEN
RUBIN DIAMOND.

[REDACTED] described ANN FINESTONE CHAVEN as the leader and "Guiding Light" at this meeting. It was significant to [REDACTED] at that time that those persons present at the meeting referred to each other as "Comrade." (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] remained in the Communist Party until the fall [REDACTED] when he severed his connections in spite of the protest of the Party members. (b)(7)(D)

NY 65-15773

After officially joining the Communist Party, [REDACTED] a Communist Party group on the Cornell University Campus comprised of the following students: (b)(7)(d)

ROBERT FOGEL, -who was more or less a leader of the group, and who attended approximately every other meeting, at which time he laid down the Party line. After receiving the instructions from FOGEL, each member of this group would "mouth" the line explicitly.

LUCILLE OAKLANDER

DANIEL MARION

JACK MINKOFF

ABNER SLAT

JOHN and DAVID LUBBELL, who were identical twins.

JOHN WOOD

JOHN and DAVID LUBBELL subsequently put out a "Newsletter" which followed the Communist Party line on the Cornell University Campus. These two brothers had obtained a mimeograph machine and a typewriter from an unknown source for this purpose. The "Newsletter" was published approximately once each month, and [REDACTED] stated that the LUBBELL brothers worked hard on this project. [REDACTED] further related that he considered the LUBBELL brothers completely loyal to the Communist Party as of that time. (b)(7)(d)

LUCILLE OAKLANDER left the group and possibly the Communist Party in the fall of 1947. OAKLANDER became infuriated at the stand taken by the Communist Party over the issue of SCHASTAKOVICH'S (the Russian composer) music. SCHASTAKOVICH at that time was being disciplined for turning out "reactionary music."

OAKLANDER was described as being a highly excitable music student who was in the Communist Party possibly because she considered it daring and also because of her family background. Her father was believed to be a business agent for a Furriers Local, Bronx, New York. [REDACTED] does not believe that OAKLANDER would be cooperative if interviewed. (b)(7)(d)

NY 65-15773

During the early part of the school year of 1947-1948,

[REDACTED] (b)(7)(D)
During the school year, PAUL ROBESON, JR. was constantly badgered to become a Communist Party member. He brushed off their pleas during this school term, 1947 and 1948, usually with the excuse, "I will talk to my father." In the fall of 1948, at Cornell University, PAUL ROBESON, JR. joined the Communist Party. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) did not know the immediate circumstances surrounding ROBESON'S joining the Communist Party, but knows that he became a Communist Party member at that time.

PAUL ROBESON, JR. was described as being a very pleasant individual, a fairly good athlete, and he did not exhibit the viciousness and character that some of the others seemed to have. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) recalls that PAUL ROBESON, JR. once mentioned that he and his father paid a visit to the Russian Consulate in New York City. PAUL ROBESON, JR. speaks the Russian language perfectly, and for this reason, among others, made an excellent impression on the Russian personnel. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) stated that the Russians considered it an insult if you speak their language incorrectly. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) stated that because of ROBESON'S background, he believed he is disloyal to the United States and would engage in espionage if the opportunity prevailed. PAUL ROBESON, JR. subsequently married MARYLYN GREENBERG, a Communist Party member.

JACK MINKOFF, during the school year 1947-1948, graduated. His place at 303 College Avenue was filled by one ABNER SLAT, previously identified as a Communist Party member.

Other persons who [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) knew to be Communist Party members on the Cornell University Campus during the time of his attendance were as follows:

ELEANOR GRIBVIAN
SIGMUND HERZSTEIN, aka: "ZIGGY"
BARBARA MILLER
DAVE BROWNSTONE
LINDA REYNOLDS, and her boyfriend who married someone else. [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D) could not recall the boyfriend's name during the interview.

NY 65-15773

DAVE BROWNSTONE was described as a "Blood and Guts" Party member who was active as he possibly could be. MAXWELL FINESTONE suspected BROWNSTONE of being a Trotskyite spy, and openly accused him of this. BROWNSTONE, however, was not perturbed and subsequently, BROWNSTONE was accepted into the Communist Party on the Cornell University Campus. [REDACTED] believes that FINESTONE and BROWNSTONE continued to be cold towards each other because of FINESTONE'S previous accusations. (b)(7)(D)

The following people were identified by [REDACTED] as fellow travellers, and to his knowledge, never joined the Communist Party: (b)(7)(D)

MARVIN MILLS, [REDACTED] stated that MARVIN MILLS in all probability is a Communist Party member, but he could not definitely identify him as such. (b)(7)(D)

SELM CHERNAGON

JOHN MARQUESE

MARION (last name unknown), who subsequently is believed to be married to RUBIN DIAMOND.

BARBARA COLE

BARRY FEIDEN or FREIDEN. COLE and FEIDEN subsequently married each other.

JAMES WEINSTEIN, aka: JIMMY

The fact that WEINSTEIN was not a Party member was a source of some concern to the Party members. WEINSTEIN'S people were allegedly millionaires who had put a great deal of money into an organization believed to be the Spanish Refugee Committee, (possibly the Spanish Refugee Relief Campaign, cited as a Communist front by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities, report January 3, 1940, Page 9). [REDACTED] does not believe that WEINSTEIN'S parents were Party members. He stated that they travelled in an intellectual society group and did not have the "working class" background. (b)(7)(D)

JIMMY WEINSTEIN had an apartment at 181 Central Park West, New York City, on about the eighth floor of the building, during the time that he attended Cornell University. There was a private elevator that travelled from the ground floor directly to this apartment. On or about [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D)

M JAMES WEINSTEIN
JACK MINKOFF
MARILYN GREENBERG
LUCILLE OAKLANDER

Neither [REDACTED] could recall any other specific New York address or apartment. They stated that somebody always had an apartment in New York, but that they never made any particular effort to find out where these apartments were. [REDACTED] believed that the GATTY brothers had a New York apartment because their home was in New Zealand, and they needed some place to call home in the United States. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] did not recall that FINESTONE was present at this meeting, and to the best of his recollection, had not met this subject at that time. (b)(7)(D)

WEINSTEIN'S AUTOMOBILE

[REDACTED] stated that WEINSTEIN owned a 1948 black Buick convertible automobile up until the spring of 1950. At this time, [REDACTED] heard that WEINSTEIN gave his car to a relative to drive to the Middle West where the relative could allegedly sell the automobile for a higher price than could be obtained in the East. [REDACTED] could not recall that WEINSTEIN purchased another automobile, but felt that he undoubtedly did. (b)(7)(D)

WEINSTEIN often drove to New York City. [REDACTED] could recall no specific long trips that WEINSTEIN undertook. WEINSTEIN frequently took FINESTONE out to a meal and always paid the total check, since the latter was usually hard-pressed financially. (b)(7)(D)

It was [REDACTED] impression that WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE were not intimate friends, that is, to such an extent that they completely and wholeheartedly trusted each other. (b)(7)(D)

NY 65-15773

FINESTONE had no respect for personal property, and on a number of occasions would seem to be unduly abusive to the personal possessions of WEINSTEIN when he was present at WEINSTEIN'S apartment at Cornell.

FINESTONE'S AUTOMOBILE

[REDACTED] related that FINESTONE'S stepfather was in the upholstery business. In connection with this business he operated a 1948 one-half ton light gray Studebaker pick-up truck. Often FINESTONE would drive this truck, and on other occasions, he stepfather would drive him to school and then leave him, returning to his business place with the truck. (b)(7)(D)

Subsequently, about 1949, FINESTONE purchased a 1935 black tudor Chevrolet sedan. [REDACTED] knows that FINESTONE commuted to New York City approximately twice in the summer of 1949 with this automobile. [REDACTED] does not believe that FINESTONE ever paid for this car, and heard that the original owner gave up trying to collect his money, and subsequently moved out West, exact place unknown. (b)(7)(D)

140 COLLEGE AVENUE

[REDACTED] recalls that LEONARD MARZAC, MARVIN MILLS, and ARTHUR BANKS resided at 140 College Avenue as early as the fall of 1946. She stated that sometimes as many as twenty persons were present in this apartment at one time. There was usually a great deal of "interesting" activity at this apartment, such as political discussions which she described as left wing discussions, record playing, and sometimes a little drinking. If there were as many as twenty persons in the apartment, all of them did not engage in the same discussions, because there was not the space to accommodate a large group. [REDACTED] stated that MARZAC and MILLS usually were the leaders in the left wing discussions. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] stated that he did not believe that meetings of the Communist Party, as such, were held at this address. He related that the persons who congregated at this address (b)(7)(D) had great pride in the heterogeneous nature of their group. Usually the Communist Party members went to this address to collect signatures on their petitions, and usually they encountered no difficulty in this activity at this address.

[REDACTED] recalled that either HAROLD or RONALD GATTY resided at this apartment after MARZAC and MILLS went to Europe to study at the Sorbonne in Paris, France. GATTY was described as an "on-looker" at the left wing discussions. ARTHUR BANKS was described as a hard working student who was more or less an "on-looker" at the discussions also. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] recalled that the GATTY brothers were native New Zealanders whose parents, although wealthy, believed that their sons, for the most part, should finance their own way through college. (b)(7)(D)

DAVID LYLE lived at the 140 College Avenue address while MARZAC and MILLS were in Europe. [REDACTED] did not recall that LYLE was an active participant in the left wing discussions. (b)(7)(D)

BARBARA COLE and BARRY FEIDEN visited this address often. [REDACTED] described them as friends of WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE. These two persons as set out above, were fellow travellers, and [REDACTED] could not recall whether or not they ever joined the Communist Party. (b)(7)(D)

RUBIN DIAMOND, identified previously as a fellow traveller, was a frequent visitor at this apartment, and was a friend of both WEINSTEIN and FINESTONE, according to [REDACTED] (b)(7)(D)

MARION HARRIET PORTER, aka: SONNY PORTER, sometimes visited at 140 College Avenue. The period of her visits was believed to be during the times that MILLS and MARZAC were in Europe.

ARTHUR BANKS and PORTER were friendly with each other for a short time, but subsequently broke off their relationship.

NY 65-15773

[REDACTED] could not recall that PORTER took part in the left wing discussions. (b)(7)(D)

SIGMUND HERZSTEIN lived on the second floor at 303 College Avenue, a short distance from this apartment. He was a frequent visitor at 140 College Avenue. [REDACTED] HERZSTEIN once [REDACTED] some type of [REDACTED] for [REDACTED] simply because he was handy at the time. [REDACTED] described HERZSTEIN as a person who took his Communist Party membership seriously. [REDACTED] believes that sometime around 1949, HERZSTEIN was suddenly absent from the Cornell Campus. Inquiry revealed that HERZSTEIN had left school to be a Communist Party Organizer in the middle New Jersey area, possibly around Bayonne. This was a closely guarded secret among the Communist Party members on the Campus. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] both related that it was extremely difficult for them to recall who was friendly with whom during that period. It was their impression that all of these people were more or less friendly with each other, and that each knew what the other's activity was. They described these people as "a queer lot - that when they all got together at one time they certainly appeared to be different in appearance as well as thoughts and actions from the average American." [REDACTED] estimated that the total strength of this left wing group on the Campus, including Communist Party members and fellow travellers was approximately fifty in 1948. This he believed was the peak of their strength. (b)(7)(D)

303 COLLEGE AVENUE

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] the first floor apartment at 303 College Avenue [REDACTED] at Cornell University. [REDACTED] at this address were JACK MINKOFF and PAUL ROBESON, JR., both of whom [REDACTED] previously identified as Communist Party members. After MINKOFF graduated, his place was filled by ABNER SLAT, a Communist Party member. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] believes that in the school year, 1946-1947, JACK MINKOFF and ROBERT FOGEL lived in the basement apartment (b)(7)(D) at 303 College Avenue. This basement apartment was rented by JAMES WEINSTEIN in the school years 1947-1948 and 1948-1949. The apartment was comprised of a bedroom and a kitchen and had a direct entrance from the outside. Part of the requirements of renting this basement apartment was that the occupant should fire the furnace, which WEINSTEIN was derelict in doing.

ROBERT KLEINBERG or KLINEBERG, lived with MINKOFF and FOGEL before WEINSTEIN took over. KLEINBERG, according to [REDACTED] was a Communist Party member. KLEINBERG subsequently married a girl whose first name was HELEN, and moved across the street from 303, exact address unknown. This latter address was a place where small active Communist Party groups met after KLEINBERG moved. (b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] recalled that KLEINBERG owned what appeared to be an abnormally expensive radio for a college student. While KLEINBERG occupied the basement apartment at 303, the radio was kept in the window sill. [REDACTED] did not recall that this radio was used for any clandestine purpose. (b)(7)(D)

After WEINSTEIN took the apartment in the basement, RUBIN DIAMOND occupied the apartment with him. [REDACTED] related that quite a few of the persons engaged in left wing or Communist activity were visitors in this apartment while WEINSTEIN lived there. Specifically, [REDACTED] stated that the most frequent visitors were ROBERT FOGEL, LEONARD MARZAC, MARVIN MILLS, SIGMUND HERZSTEIN, BARRY FEIDEN, and BARBARA COLE. [REDACTED] stated that MAX FINESTONE visited the apartment, but he could not recall that FINESTONE visited this place as often as the above. (b)(7)(D)

JACK MINKOFF and ROBERT FOGEL were described as the "originators" of Communist Party activity on the Cornell Campus after World War II. These two persons often surrounded themselves with three or four other Communist Party members and held meetings in a room in the library building. MINKOFF was openly active in the American Youth for Democracy on the Cornell Campus. MINKOFF severed his connection openly with the American Youth for Democracy and went into a group on the Campus known as the National Student Organization. The National Student Organization was not a Communist organization so far as [REDACTED] knew. MINKOFF severed his American Youth for Democracy connections in order to make it appear that he was no longer a Communist. [REDACTED] advised that MINKOFF remained in the Communist Party. (b)(7)(D)

MINKOFF'S home was believed by [REDACTED] to be on Barker Avenue, in a cooperative housing project, Bronx, New York. [REDACTED] recalled that he visited MINKOFF'S home once, and when they arrived at the bus stop near MINKOFF'S home, the bus driver stated, "All off for little Moscow." [REDACTED] stated that MINKOFF was not a kind and considerate person, and further that he believes that if the opportunity prevailed, MINKOFF would engage in espionage activities. (b)(7)(D)

JOHN MARQUESE

[REDACTED] stated that he did not know MARQUESE to be a Communist Party member. MARQUESE on the other hand, associated himself with the left wing group on the college campus. [REDACTED] stated that she was in a number of classes with MARQUESE, and that he always slanted his conversations in these classes to the left. (b)(7)(D)

Neither [REDACTED] could recall any specific trip which MARQUESE took. However, they did recall that he went to Europe on one occasion. (b)(7)(D)

ALFRED SARANT, WILLIAM PERL, WELDON BRUCE DAYTON

[REDACTED] stated that they did not know of any intimate relationship between FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN, and SARANT, PERL and DAYTON. [REDACTED] stated that she was quite certain that FINESTONE was associated with DAYTON, because on one occasion [REDACTED] DAYTON'S house which was being built at that time. [REDACTED] both recalled seeing DAYTON'S wife in the nursery school at Cornell University. [REDACTED] could recall no trips or other official business relationship which the subject FINESTONE or WEINSTEIN engaged in which, in their opinion, was for an illegal purpose. (b)(7)(D)

NY 65-15773

[REDACTED] stated that they had never heard (b)(7)(D) of a BILL GRAY.

INFORMATION REGARDING CHANGE OF
TOP OF SUBJECT'S BUICK CONVERTIBLE

It will be recalled that on October 15, 1951, at the Broadwest Motor Car Company, 2 West 61 Street, New York City, Mr. HOWARD E. GUEDALIA advised that he had purchased from JAMES WEINSTEIN, 418 East Ninth Street, New York City, a 1949 Buick convertible, Model 56-C, during the morning of July 19, 1950 for the price of $1,800.00, for which he gave his check number 2568. Mr. GUEDALIA described the seller of this automobile and his description coincided with the description of the subject.

NY 65-15773

An examination of check number 2568 revealed that JAMES WEINSTEIN had deposited this check at the Industrial Bank of Commerce, New York City, on July 19, 1950. It was noted that the date of the sale of the car and the date of the deposit was two days after the arrest of JULIUS ROSENBERG for conspiracy to commit espionage. JULIUS ROSENBERG was arrested on the night of July 17, 1950 and information concerning this arrest first appeared in the newspapers on the morning of July 18, 1950.

Mr. GUEDALIA stated that the Buick automobile that he bought from JAMES WEINSTEIN was of a dark gray color and that it had two white-wall tires on it. He stated that on October 19, 1950 he sold this car to one Dr. LEONARD J. FOX, 225 West 106 Street, New York City, a dentist, who had offices at 134 West 86 Street, New York City.

On December 14, 1951 Mr. ROBERT FOX, father of Dr. LEONARD J. FOX, telephonically advised that he had ascertained from his son, who was serving in Korea, that just prior to his son's departure from the United States he had sold his 1949 dark grey Buick convertible to a Rabbi who lived on Riverside Drive between 110 Street and 115 Street, New York City. This automobile was located on December 14, 1951 at the Herbst Garage, 227 East 162 Street, New York City, through information obtained from Rabbi ARTHUR J. LELYVELD, 410 Riverside Drive, New York City.

On May 8, 1952 Mr. ROBERT FOX advised that he recalled that his son had replaced the white or light gray canvas top that was on the Buick convertible at the time that his son had purchased the car from a used car dealer because the car had on one occasion been parked on the street outside their home and the top had been slashed and torn by vandals during the night. He stated that the damage was so extensive that the top could not be repaired and had to be replaced with a new top.

Mr. ROBERT FOX stated that he did not know at which garage his son had this work done and that he was unable to correspond with his son as he had received a letter informing him that he was leaving Korea and was returning to the United States. Mr. FOX advised that upon his son's return to New York City he would request him to contact the reporting agent and advise concerning the identity of the dealer that replaced the top on the Buick convertible.

On August 8, 1952 Mr. ROBERT FOX telephonically advised that his son, Captain LEONARD J. FOX, DDS, had returned to the United States from military service in the Pacific area but had been reassigned to Camp Polk, Louisiana, and could be reached there at the dental clinic.

On October 3, 1952, Captain LEONARD J. FOX, Post Dental Surgeon, Camp Polk, Louisiana, was interviewed by SA WILLIAM J. SCHMIDT, and advised that the color of the 1949 Buick convertible that he purchased from the Broadwest Motor Company was an olive drab color, only a little greener. He further described the color as a cross between a green and a brown. He stated that at the time he purchased the car the top was tan and that the top had been replaced with another tan colored top. Captain FOX said he could not remember the name of the garage that replaced the top but gave the following as the approximate location:

The garage making the repair was located on the northwest corner of an intersection about three blocks east of a large DeSoto garage which was located on the northeast corner of Broadway at about 122 Street, New York City. Captain FOX said that the job was subcontracted out by the garage to a father and son who reside in the Bronx, New York. He also said that the repair bill had been paid for by the Goldman Insurance Company, which firm carried the insurance on the Buick at the time that he purchased the car from the Broadwest Motor Company and throughout the period that he owned the car.

PHYSICAL SURVEILLANCE OF SUBJECT

The subject was placed under physical surveillance between October 14 and October 17, 1952, the period immediately following the United States Supreme Court denial of a writ of certiorary to the lawyers of JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG and Attached testimony of Weinstein before McCarthy Committee, 11-17-53, New York City, reflects he refused to answer questions concerning Communist activities or association with Julius Rosenberg and Maxwell Finestone, on basis of 5th Amendment. He denied he was member of Rosenberg Espionage Ring or ever engaged in espionage.

An analysis of testimony reflects no information of substance furnished by Weinstein to McCarthy Committee not previously known to the Bureau.

Weinstein, subject of pending Bureau investigation, came to our attention in 1951, on basis of information received from an informant of unknown reliability, indicating that Weinstein and his friend, Finestone, might have been involved in the Rosenberg Network. Our investigation to date has been negative. In 1950, Weinstein and Finestone refused to be interviewed by Bureau agents and in 1951, they refused to answer pertinent questions before a Federal Grand Jury.

None. For your information.

SUBJECT: EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, wa
ESPIONAGE - R; PERJURY;
INTERNAL SECURITY ACT OF 1950;
FRAUD AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

Enclosed herewith are the original and five copies of the report of SA RICHARD A. MINIHAN, dated 1/13/54, at N.Y.

The Bureau's attention is invited to the fact that in addition to the information furnished by T-18 as set forth in the enclosed report, [REDACTED] that JAMES WEINSTEIN on [REDACTED] was going to organize a small CP cell in Harlem, NY. [REDACTED] b7D

The informant had received instructions to attempt to develop WEINSTEIN's confidence and promptly report all information told to him by WEINSTEIN.

Bureau's attention is further invited to the fact that WEINSTEIN filled out a Personnel Security Questionnaire at the Anton Electronic Laboratories, Brooklyn, NY, on 6/12/51 and worked for this company on 6/13 and 14, 1951 and never appeared thereafter. He also never returned for his salary.

In this PSQ it will be noted that subject failed to list any organizations under the caption set forth and listed an employment in the Espey Manufacturing Co., NYC, from September, 1948 to June, 1949.

As set forth in the enclosed report, the files and records of this corporation fail to indicate any employment for the subject and the files of Cornell University reflect that WEINSTEIN graduated with an AB Degree in June, 1949. It would therefore appear that WEINSTEIN was at Cornell from September, 1948 to June, 1949. A lead is being designated for Albany Office to establish presence of subject at Cornell University at this time.

The above information is being furnished the Bureau for consideration of presenting these facts to the Department for a decision of any possible violation of FAS statutes.

There is transmitted herewith a copy of the Summary Report of Special Agent Richard A. Minihan, dated January 13, 1954, at New York, in the above-captioned case. Numerous reports reflecting results of investigation in this case have been submitted to the Department previously.

It will be noted from a review of the above reports that Weinstein came to our attention in 1951 on the basis of information received from an informant of unknown reliability indicating that Weinstein and his friend, Maxwell Finestone, might have been involved in the Julius Rosenberg espionage network. It has been determined that Weinstein had been connected with such organizations as the Young Progressives of America, the American Youth for Democracy, and Labor Youth League.

Your attention is invited to information set forth in the enclosed report reflecting that Weinstein filled out a personnel security questionnaire at the Anton Electronic Laboratories, Brooklyn, New York, on June 12, 1951. He worked for this company on June 13 and 14, 1951, and did not return thereafter. There is also transmitted herewith a Photostat of this questionnaire. It will be noted that in this questionnaire Weinstein failed to list membership in any organizations. It is further noted that Weinstein listed employment at the Espey Manufacturing Company, New York City, from September, 1948, to June, 1949. However, the records of the Espey Company failed to reflect subject was employed there.

NOTE: Weinstein and his close friend, Finestone, possibly acquainted with Julius Rosenberg according to Jerome Tartakow, fellow inmate of Rosenberg. Weinstein's car used by Finestone in driving Rosenberg to Ithaca, New York, for a pickup of espionage material. Weinstein filled out a personnel security questionnaire at Anton Electronic Laboratories, Brooklyn, NY, and failed to list membership in any organization and he allegedly was a member of the Labor Youth League, American

This is with reference to your memorandum of February 4, 1954, in which you request the opinion of the Criminal Division regarding possible prosecution of the subject under the provisions of Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1001, based on his execution of a personnel security questionnaire on June 12, 1951, in connection with an application for employment at the Anton Electronic Laboratories in Brooklyn, New York.

It is noted from the summary report which you enclosed that Weinstein failed to answer question number 26 of this questionnaire pertaining to organizations in which he holds or has held membership, and that in answering question number 29, he claimed former employment by the Espey Manufacturing Company of New York City, which fact is denied by that concern.

According to the summary report, a witness is available who could testify that Weinstein attended at least one meeting of the American Youth for Democracy, and confidential informants have stated that he was a leader in the Young Progressives of America and active in the Labor Youth League.

Title 18, U.S.C., Section 1001 provides criminal penalties not only for the making or using of any false statement or writing within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States Government, but also for the wilful and knowing concealment of any material fact by any trick, scheme or device. In order to conduct a successful prosecution of the subject, it would be incumbent upon the Government to prove his membership in the above organizations, his wilful intent to conceal that fact, and that such membership constituted a material fact within the jurisdiction of the department or agency of the United States Government concerned with the execution of the questionnaire.

While Weinstein's failure to note his activities in the American Youth for Democracy might well be construed as the concealment of a material fact, as penalized by Section 1001, it is the opinion of the Criminal Division that insufficient evidence exists to establish either his membership in the organization or his intent to conceal such membership. The sole evidence which could be adduced at trial would be the testimony of Mr. Kenneth W. Moore that the subject was a "fellow traveler" and that a meeting of the Executive Committee of a unit of the American Youth for Democracy was once held at his New York apartment.

Referring specifically to Weinstein's listing of employment at Espey Manufacturing Company, it is doubtful that this falsification in the instant situation is of such materiality as to bring it within the scope of Section 1001. Assuming, however, that it were material, it is the opinion of this Division that a prosecution under the foregoing section, based on this misrepresentation, standing alone, could not be successfully undertaken in these circumstances.

Although it is noted that certain confidential informants, if made available, could probably establish Weinstein's membership in the Young Progressives of America, it is the opinion of the Criminal Division that his failure to state his membership in this organization, which, according to your informant, is not Communist dominated or controlled, does not constitute the concealment of a material fact within the purview of Section 1001, and would not be an appropriate basis for an indictment.

Regarding Weinstein's activities in the Labor Youth League, it is not believed that testimony as to his participation in social affairs sponsored by that organization would be sufficient to establish his status as a member. It would be appreciated, however, if you were to reinterview the confidential informant designated by the symbol T-18 in the summary report prepared by Special Agent Richard Minihan, to ascertain further details regarding his statement that the subject served as an "organizer" for the Labor Youth League. Upon receipt of this information, further consideration will be given concerning the possibility of prosecution.

Reference is made to information previously furnished by T-1, of unknown reliability, on December 23, 1953 to the effect that he described subject as an organizer in the Labor Youth League (LYL) and Young Progressives of America (YPA) in 1950 and 1951.

T-1 was reinterviewed on April 12, 1954 for any further details regarding this statement. He stated that he has always considered WEINSTEIN an organizer in the LYL and YPA because WEINSTEIN always seemed to be working with the other organizers and directing social affairs between the local YPA and LYL Clubs and their respective headquarters. He stated that WEINSTEIN's actions at these social affairs appeared to him to be more than those of a rank and file member. T-1 pointed out that the local LYL and YPA Clubs have overlapping membership and it is difficult to differentiate WEINSTEIN's activities inasmuch as he belongs to both.

This is with further reference to a memorandum from the Criminal Division dated March 29, 1954, in which it was requested that the confidential informant designated by the symbol T-18 in the report of Special Agent Richard Minihan dated January 13, 1954, be reinterviewed to ascertain further details regarding his statement that the subject was an "organizer" for the Labor Youth League.

It is noted from the report of Special Agent Richard Minihan dated April 16, 1954, that this informant can only state that Weinstein was a Labor Youth League "organizer". It would appear that his only admissible testimony would be to the effect that Weinstein attended social gatherings sponsored by the Labor Youth League, consorted with officers of a local chapter of the Labor Youth League, and made financial contributions to that organization and to the Young Progressives of America. In view of the foregoing, it is the opinion of the Criminal Division that the testimony of this informant standing alone and uncorroborated, is insufficient to establish Weinstein's membership in the Labor Youth League and to support a prosecution under the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001, based on his concealment of that fact in a Personnel Security Questionnaire which he executed on June 12, 1951.

However, if other witnesses become available who can testify in greater detail as to the subject's activities in the Labor Youth League, such as his attendance at business meetings, payment of dues, or other indicia of membership, the advisability of prosecution will be reconsidered.

Mrs. KLEINBERG, in a signed statement dated March 31, 1954, admitted joining the American Youth for Democracy in the spring of 1945 and admitted membership in the Student Section of the Communist Party at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York from the end of 1945 or early 1946 until June, 1949.

Mrs. KLEINBERG, after reviewing photographs in the Cornell Year Book identified JAMES WEINSTEIN as being in attendance at meetings of the Student Section of the Communist Party at Cornell during this period. She stated she could not say that WEINSTEIN was a member of this group as she did not see his Communist Party Card but had assumed all were members because they attended meetings. She recalled that WEINSTEIN was a member of the Class of 1949 and for a period was a regular attendant at these meetings. She recalled that he was wealthy and ashamed of it. She stated that after WEINSTEIN started to attend meetings she had a recollection that he had been excused or exempt from attending meetings in the past.

Mrs. JAMES MC GRATH, superintendent, 101 St. Marks Place, New York City advised the subject continues to reside in the basement apartment at that address.

T-1, of unknown reliability, advised that subject is presently active in starting a new Labor Youth League club on Stanton Street, New York City. He stated that subject continues to be active in the Labor Youth League and attended street meetings in New York City on April 21, 1954.

T-1 further advised that a meeting of the Labor Youth League on April 30, 1954 was scheduled to be held at a hall on Stanton Street, New York City.

T-1 advised that WEINSTEIN'S apartment contains Communist books and Soviet books and publications. He stated he observed the following publications:

"Das Kapital" by KARL MARX
"Biology and Marxism" by PRENANT
"Law of the Soviet State" by VISHINSKY

Informant also advised that on April 20, 1954 there was a stack of "Daily Workers" in WEINSTEIN'S apartment.

T-1 stated that WEINSTEIN continues to work at Emerson's TV plant in New Jersey and as a result of his television training, WEINSTEIN repairs and adjusts loudspeakers used by the Labor Youth League in street meetings.

The "Daily Worker" is an east coast Communist daily newspaper.

NY 65-15773

This memorandum pointed out that Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001 provides criminal penalties not only for making or using any false statement or writing within the jurisdiction of an agency of the United States Government, but also for the wilful and knowing concealment of any material fact by any trick, scheme or device. In order to conduct a successful prosecution of the subject, it would be incumbent upon the Government to prove his membership in the American Youth for Democracy (AYD), the Young Progressives of America (YPA) and the Labor Youth League (LYL), his wilful intent to conceal that fact, and that such membership constituted a material fact within the jurisdiction of the department or agency of the United States Government concerned with the execution of the questionnaire.

The memorandum continued that while WEINSTEIN'S failure to note his activities in the AYD might well be construed as the concealment of a material fact, as penalized by Section 1001, ^{it} was the opinion of the Criminal Division that insufficient evidence existed to establish either his membership in the organization or his intent to conceal such membership.

The memorandum pointed out that the sole evidence which could be adduced at trial would be the testimony of Mr. KENNETH W. MOORE that subject was a "fellow traveler" and that a meeting of the Executive Committee of a unit of the AYD was once held at his New York apartment.

Referring specifically to WEINSTEIN'S listing of employment at Espey Manufacturing Company, it is doubted that this falsification in the instant situation was of such materiality as to bring it within the scope of Section 1001.

It was noted that certain confidential informants, if made available, could probably establish WEINSTEIN'S membership in the YPA. However, it was the opinion of the Criminal Division that the subject's failure to state his membership in this organization, which, according to an informant, is not Communist dominated or controlled, did not constitute the concealment of a material fact within the purview of Section 1001 and would not be an appropriate basis for an indictment.

NY 65-15773

Regarding WEINSTEIN'S activities in the LYL, it was not believed that testimony as to his participation in social affairs sponsored by that organization would be sufficient to establish his status as a member.

The memorandum requested a reinterview of a confidential informant to ascertain further details regarding a statement previously made by the informant that the subject served as an organizer for the LYL.

Accordingly, T-1, of unknown reliability, was reinterviewed on April 12, 1954 for any further details regarding this statement and was unable to furnish any specific information.

On May 25, 1954 the memorandum by WARREN OLNEY, III, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, United States Department of Justice, advised that inasmuch as this informant could only state that WEINSTEIN was a LYL "organizer", it would appear that the only admissible testimony would be to the effect that WEINSTEIN attended social gatherings sponsored by the LYL, consorted with other officers of local chapters of the LYL and made financial contributions to that organization and to the YPA.

The memorandum reflected that in view of the foregoing, it was the opinion of the Criminal Division that the testimony of this informant standing alone and uncorroborated, was insufficient to establish WEINSTEIN'S membership in the LYL and to support a prosecution under the provisions of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001, based on his concealment of that fact in the Personnel Security Questionnaire executed on June 12, 1951.

It is to be noted that the statute of limitations bars any prosecution in this matter subsequent to June 12, 1954.

The AYD and the LYL have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SUBJECT: EDWARD JAMES WEINSTEIN, was ESP-R

Subject is being submitted for consideration under the Immunity Bill.

b7D [redacted] has furnished information which led to the identification of subject as a room-mate of one MAXWELL FINESTONE, who has been identified as the last individual recruited by JULIUS ROSENBERG in his espionage apparatus. Subject, according to informant, loaned his car to FINESTONE to drive JULIUS ROSENBERG to Ithaca, New York to make a pickup of espionage material. Subject withdrew $7500 from his bank account on July 20, 1950 and on July 21, 1950, VIVIAN GLASSMAN received $2,000 in cash from an unidentified individual (possibly FINESTONE) to deliver to WILLIAM PERL in Cleveland with instructions to flee to Mexico. The disposition of subject's $7,500 has not been determined.

Subject has refused to cooperate or discuss his background or activities with Bureau agents or the Federal Grand Jury.

This office believes that if WEINSTEIN is offered immunity and did cooperate, he could furnish valuable information concerning the ROSENBERG espionage apparatus. It is to be noted that the ROSENBERG espionage network operated during wartime and there is no statute of limitations to bar prosecution.

Weinstein was born 7/17/26 in New York City. He came to our attention as a result of information supplied by Jerome E. Tartakow, of unknown reliability, who was a fellow inmate in the Federal House of Detention, New York City, with Julius Rosenberg, executed Soviet agent. Rosenberg told Tartakow the last person recruited into his network was a man named X, who was living with a man named Y. The man named Y was reputed to be the son of a wealthy family who owned a 1949 or 1950 black convertible Buick, studied law and was a personal friend of O. John Rogge, prominent New York attorney. Investigation identified Maxwell Finestone as X and the subject as Y. Rosenberg also stated X borrowed Y's Buick and drove Rosenberg to Syracuse to pick up espionage material from Alfred Sarant, member of the Rosenberg network. Investigation reflected Weinstein is the son of a wealthy New York garment manufacturer and that he studied law for one year at Columbia University. It was determined he owned a 1949 Buick convertible which he sold shortly after the arrest of Julius Rosenberg. Investigation also showed his family was friendly with O. John Rogge. Investigation of Weinstein failed to reflect evidence of his being engaged in current espionage. He refused to be interviewed by Bureau agents and during an appearance before a Federal Grand Jury allegedly refused to answer pertinent question. He is connected with several pro-Communist organizations.

The facts in this case were presented to the Criminal Division for possible prosecution under Title 18, U.S. Code, Section 1001, for failing to list membership in the Labor Youth League, American Youth for Democracy and Young Progressives of America in a personnel security questionnaire filed 6/12/51. The Criminal Division advised on the basis of available information successful prosecution could not be had for subject's failure to list LYL membership.

The subject is on the Security Index and is being retained due to his pro-Communist affiliations and espionage allegations against him. All see references have been reviewed and all logical leads covered. Dissemination of pertinent reports has been made to G-2 and RAB.

SUCCINCT RESUME OF CASE

All informants mentioned hereinafter have furnished reliable information in the past, unless otherwise noted.

Evidence of Membership in Basic Revolutionary Organization (CP, USA)

Mrs. HENRY LEVY KLEINBERG, 835 Riverside Drive, New York, a self-admitted member of the Student Section of the CP at Cornell University from the end of 1945 or early 1946 until June, 1949, was interviewed at the NYO during March, 1954, at which time she described the subject as follows:

After reviewing photographs in a Cornell Yearbook, Mrs. KLEINBERG identified the subject as being in attendance at meetings of the Student Section of the CP at Cornell University. She stated she could not say that WEINSTEIN was a member of this group as she had not seen his CP membership card, but had assumed all were members because they attended meetings. She recalled that WEINSTEIN was a member of the class of 1949 and for a period was a regular attendant at these meetings. She recalled that he was wealthy and ashamed of it. She stated that after WEINSTEIN started to attend meetings she had a recollection that he had been excused or exempted from attending meetings in the past.

67D [redacted] advised on 1/7 and 8/54 that he believed the subject was a member of the CP while a student at Cornell University during 1948 and 1949, but was unable to recall the subject's attendance at any specific CP meetings.

JOSEPH WEINSTEIN and BARBARA WEINSTEIN, Subject's Parents

Mrs. JOSEPH WEINSTEIN was indicted 3/31/47 for contempt of congress to wit: failing to produce the records of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee before the House Committee on Un-American Activities in April, 1946. She was convicted in the US District Court, Washington, D.C., 6/27/47, and on 4/24/48 received a $500.00 fine and a three months suspended sentence.

b7D [REDACTED] furnished information during 1953 that JOSEPH WEINSTEIN, 211 Central Park West was a member of the Board of Trustees of the JSSS in March, 1944.

RECOMMENDATION

Retain on the Security Index for the following reasons:

1. Subject has been identified by a reliable source as an active member and organizer of the LYL during 1950 and 1951 and from 1954 to present.

2. Subject's apparent involvement with MAXWELL FINESTONE, whose identification and activities as a member of the JULIUS

Letter to Director
NY 65-15573

b7D ROSENBERG Espionage Ring are based upon statements made by JULIUS ROSENBERG to [REDACTED] a reliable informant. Although the extent of the subject's participation in espionage activities has not been clearly established, the information furnished by [REDACTED] indicates a strong possibility that the subject's subversive background also includes Soviet espionage activities.

3. The subject's refusal to answer questions before a Grand Jury on 4/17/51 regarding his CP or CP front membership or his association with MAXWELL FINESTONE and WILLIAM PERL.

DETCOM TABBING

The subject is presently tabbed under the detcom plan of the NYO.

The subject was not approved for priority apprehension, provisions for which are set forth in SAC Letter 55-12A.

It is recommended that the subject be deleted from detcom status inasmuch as his reported subversive activities do not conform with the current provisions for priority apprehension.

DATE: 8/27/56

Enclosed herewith are the original and four copies of the report of SA WALTER C. GUTHEIL, JR. dated and captioned as above.

The character of this investigation has been changed to Security Matter - C. The change has been made because the subject's known activities since 1951 have been primarily confined to the LYL and have not indicated any apparent involvement by the subject in Soviet espionage.

It is noted that the case was originally characterized as Espionage - R on the basis of information furnished during 1951 which alleged that the subject was connected with WILLIAM PERL and MAXWELL FINESTONE, reported to have been members of the Julius Rosenberg Espionage Network. Investigation subsequent to 1951 failed to develop any additional concerning the subject's possible "ROSENBERG connection."

In view of the above and since information regarding the subject's LYL activities is continually being furnished the NYO, it is believed this investigation can be more efficiently administered by the Security Matter - C Section of the NYO.

This case, which was placed in a pending status at the NYO for the purpose of the preparation of an annual investigative report, will be maintained in a closed status,

Re Detroit letter to Director, 3/7/57, captioned "Labor Youth League, IS-C; ISA of 1950," Bufile 100-362555.

Relet indicated that the National Convention of the Labor Youth League was held in New York City, 2/23, 24/57, at the Broadway Central Hotel, 673 Broadway and Fourth, Room 509.

Two members of the Michigan delegation, [REDACTED] were handed over to the [REDACTED] 210 West 103rd Street, Third Floor, for housing. b7D

MARK SOLOMON, a member of the Michigan Delegation to the LYL National Convention, advised [REDACTED] that JIMMY WEINSTEIN at one time in the past was mixed up with the FBI. SOLOMON further stated WEINSTEIN had fallen under the influence of an unscrupulous roommate who was supplying the FBI with information of sorts. WEINSTEIN was soon doing the same. Sometime later he recanted and is now again in the Progressive Movement, according to SOLOMON. b7D

New York file on WEINSTEIN shows WEINSTEIN was a close friend and former roommate of LAWELL FINESTONE, described as the last individual recruited by [REDACTED] into his espionage network. JARETH "GARY" [REDACTED] advised Bureau agents that he resided with FINESTONE and WEINSTEIN in early 1950. PICKARD furnished information to the FBI concerning FINESTONE, his friends and associates, including WEINSTEIN.

There is no information or indication that WEINSTEIN has ever supplied the FBI with information. On 9/22/50, WEINSTEIN declined to be interviewed by Bureau agents. On 4/17/51, he refused to answer questions before a Grand Jury concerning his CP or CP front membership or his associates.

A current annual investigative report is being prepared in the New York office on WEINSTEIN.

The Labor Youth League (LYL) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

II AFFILIATION WITH THE COMMUNIST MOVEMENT

A. Evidence of Communist Party Membership

T-3 on March 4, 1957, identified JAMES WEINSTEIN, a student at Cornell University sometime during the period 1945 to June, 1949, whose home was on Central Park West, New York City, as having been a Communist and affiliated with the Communist Party (CP), LYL or Young Progressives of America (YPA) sometime during the same period.

It is noted that the records of Columbia University, New York City, list a JAMES WEINSTEIN, 211 Central Park West, New York City, born July 17, 1926, New York City, who received an A.B. Degree from Cornell University in June, 1949.

B. Evidence of Membership In or Sympathy With Communist Party Front Organization

Labor Youth League (LYL)

It was told at this party about a closed CP meeting on October 11, 1956 at which the organizing of a young CP organization was discussed. One of the persons telling about this CP meeting attended it. Another person told that the LYL was on its way out and that its clubs were going to continue on an independent basis with different names, but will still be unified by having young CP members in these clubs.

On December 17, 1956, T-1 advised that a meeting of delegates to the State LYL Convention was held at the home of JIMMY and JACQUE WEINSTEIN, 101 St. Marks Place, New York City on December 9, 1956, followed by a Lower East Side LYL meeting. JACQUE WEINSTEIN took part in the proceedings of both the Delegation and Club meetings; JIMMY WEINSTEIN did not take part but was there.

On March 1, 1957, T-4 advised that T-4 attended the LYL National Convention, Broadway Central Hotel, 673 Broadway and Fourth, Room 509, New York City, February 23, 24, 1957.

T-4 added that two delegates to the convention were handed over to the JIM WEINSTEINS. 210 West 103rd Street, third floor, New York City, for housing.

On May 9, 1957, T-5 advised that FLORENCE ROSENBERG, 120 Vermilyea Avenue, New York City, had in her possession material dealing with the "Inwood Financial Statement to the County" on that date.

NY 65-15773

Also in her possession on that date was the notation "JIM" followed by "CA 8-0488."

The records of the New York Bell Telephone Company, made available by EDWARD L. BRAUNE on May 23, 1957 to Special Agent ROBERT D. WARDEN, revealed that phone number CA 8-0488 was listed to JAMES WEINSTEIN, 101 St. Marks Place, New York City. It was discontinued on January 25, 1957. The new number assigned to WEINSTEIN was University 5-3942.

FLORENCE ROSENBERG was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation entering or leaving the locations of the New York County CP Conventions on January 19, 1957 and May 3 and 5, 1957. She was also observed at the location of the New York State CP Convention on March 30, 1957.

D. Miscellaneous Activities

The records of the Board of Elections, Borough of Manhattan, as checked on August 6, 1957, show that JAMES WEINSTEIN from 101 St. Marks Place, New York City, in 1952 and from 418 East 9th Street, New York City, in 1950, 1951 indicated a preference in the primary enrollments to support the aims and purposes of the American Labor Party (ALP) at the next general election in those years.

III MISCELLANEOUS

The records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, as caused to be checked in July, 1957 by Special Agent AUGUST J. MICEK, contained no record identifiable with JAMES WEINSTEIN.

Several additional informants, who are familiar with certain phases of CP activity in the New York City area, were contacted in July and August, 1957, but could not furnish any additional information concerning JAMES WEINSTEIN.

IV APPENDIX

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the American Labor Party:

- "1. 'For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.' (Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78.)
- "2. 'Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the * * * American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label.' (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

On October 7, 1956, Peter Hawley, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor Party State Committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVES OF AMERICA

HERBERT ROMERSTEIN, a self-admitted former Communist and Young Progressives of America (YPA) member, in testimony before a subcommittee of the Committee of the Judiciary, United States Senate, on April 12, 1951, and June 12, 1951, stated that the YPA was set up on the basis of the needs of the CP. YPA members were active within the organization as Communists and the organization was developed along CP lines. ROMERSTEIN also related that YPA leadership was composed of CP members. He further testified that the founding convention of the YPA was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1948.

A confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 24, 1955, that the YPA sponsored a concert by PAUL ROBESON on January 6, 1955, held in Townsend Harris Auditorium, City College of New York.

Concerning PAUL ROBESON, another confidential informant, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in June, 1950, that ROBESON was known to him prior to 1945 as a concealed Communist.

The first above-mentioned informant advised on January 31, 1956, that the YPA applied for a charter at City College of New York but that same was declined and that the YPA could not function on the campus of the City College of New York.

A confidential informant, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, on March 14, 1956, advised that YPA, as of this date, maintained a group at the City College of New York.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

The Special Agents who observed and photographed FLORENCE ROSENBERG entering Yugoslav Hall on 1/19/57 were FRANK E. CHOVANEC, DOUGLAS L. BURAU and WILLIAM F. KUSCH, Jr.; on March 30, 1957 FRANK E. CHOVANEC and PETER C. MITESSER, Jr.; May 3 and 5, 1957 WILLIAM F. KUSCH, Jr. and PAUL J. NEUMANN.

The details pertaining to the above may be found in New York file 131-688-1A5.

The records of the Board of Elections, Borough of Manhattan, were checked on 8/6/57 by Investigative Clerk JAMES G. CLEARY.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as furnished by JAMES MUST to SA PAUL F. ROWLANDS on 7/30/57, contained no record by name or address for JAMES WEINSTEIN.

The records of the Bureau of Criminal Identification, NYCPD, as caused to be checked by SA VINCENT F. CLANCE on 8/15/57 contained no record by name or address for JAMES WEINSTEIN.

JACQUELINE WEINSTEIN, wife of JAMES WEINSTEIN, is on the Security Index of the New York Office. She has New York file 100-125006 and Bureau file number 100-411662.

An ID 122 is being submitted to the Bureau showing the unemployment of JAMES WEINSTEIN. Photographs of WEINSTEIN are available and he has been personally observed.

NY 65-15773

It is recommended that JAMES WEINSTEIN not be interviewed at this time as he refused to be interviewed by Bureau Agents in 1950 and refused to answer questions before the Grand Jury in 1951, and there is nothing to show that WEINSTEIN has changed his mind about cooperating with the FBI.

The case of JAMES WEINSTEIN has been reevaluated in the light of the current Security Index Criteria. It is believed that the activities of WEINSTEIN continue to meet these criteria and it is recommended that he be retained on the Security Index of the New York Office at this time.

This report is classified "Confidential" inasmuch as it contains information which, if disclosed, would be injurious to National Defence.
